Certificate and Report of the Accountant General, Madras

Certified that the qualifying service of Sri S. Subba Sastri, late Typist, Bellary Division, in superior grade, has been duly proved for 8 years, 11 months and 25 days and that as the Superintending Engineer, Bellary Division, has condoned the deficiency of 5 days under Article 423 Civil Service Regulations making up his total qualifying service to 9 complete years, an invalid gratuity not exceeding Rs.423/- (Rupees Four hundred and twenty three only) is admissible under Articles 441 and 474 (a) of the Civil Service Regulations.

2. If, however, Government are pleased to declare his initial temporary service of 1 year and 20 days from 6th August 1928 to 25th August 1929 as qualifying for pension under Article 361-A Civil Service Regulations as recommended by the Chief Engineer, Public Works Department in his Endt. No. 1697-AD/39-1 dated 27th April 1939, his qualifying service will amount to over 10 years, even without the condonation of the deficiency of 5 days referred to in the previous paragraph, and an invalid pension not exceeding Rs.7-6-0 (Rupees Seven and annas six only) per mensem will be admissible from 24th February 1939 in lieu of the gratuity of Rs.423/- (Rupees Four hundred and twenty three only) reported to be admissible in para 1 above.

3. The calculations have been duly verified.

Sir,

*Subject.- Application for Pension or gratuity - Sri S. Subba Sastry, Typist - Bellary Dn.

ENCLOSURES_____

SPARE COPIES_____

P. 9 below.

I forward herewith a copy of letter No.383-SE dated 15-3-1939 from the Executive Engineer, Bellary Dn. together with the pension papers of Sri S. Subba Sastry, Typist, who has been invalided for further service by the District Medical Officer, Bellary.

2. From the history of services, it is seen that he has put in a total service of Y.10-6-18 as a Typist from which the first period of Y.1-0-20 as a temporary typist, in the Tungabhadra Project Division is excluded from the service qualifying for pension. Excluding this period of non-qualifying service, he will have only a qualifying service of Y.8-11-25 or 8 years. The Executive Engineer recommends payment of a gratuity of Rs 376/- (8 months emoluments at Rs 47/- per mensum) under Article Book 3 474 C.S.R and requests that the shortage of 5 days to make up for 9 years qualifying service to earn a gratuity of Rs 423, may be condoned. As it is a case deserving of consideration, I have condoned the shortage of 5 days under Art. 423 C.S.R, subject to orders being passed on para 3 below.

3. If the temporary service of Y.1-0-20 referred to in para 2 above is also included as service counting fo pension under Article 361-A C.S.R., the typist will have put in 10 years of completed service, which will enable him to earn the proportionate pension under Art.474 C.S.R. I therefore request that orders of Government may kindly be obtained for inclusion of his temporary service as qualifying for pension under Article 361-A C.S.R. as a special case.

pension

4. I agree with the Executive Engineer's remarks that it is a hard case as the work of a Typist in a Division office is taxing and involves expenditure of physical energy more than that required of a clerk.

Sub:- Gratuity for Sri S. Subba Sastry, Typist.

I send herewith for verification and sanction this application for gratuity with connected papers as noted below for Sri S. Subba Sastry, Typist of this -- Division who has been invalided with effect from 24-2-1939 by the District Medical Officer, Bellary.

A perusal of the history of the case shows that if the typist had been on duty for 5 more days the amount of gratuity would be increased by Rs.47/-. This is a hard case and requires favourable consideration. If Superintending Engineer agrees necessary action may kindly be taken to have the shortage of 5 days condoned.

Gratuity - Invalid - Subba Sastri S. late Typist, Bellary Division.

" A. G. No. S. 341/38-39/740 d. 3/5-

Sri S. Subba Sastri, late Typist Dn. was invalided from service with e 24-2-39 in consequence of myocardit pyorrhoea and general debility. He rendered service as shown below:-

	Y
(i) Qualifying service	8
(ii). Non Qualifying and interruptions.	.1
	10 — 6

For the service in item (i) above, the applican eligible for an invalid gratuity of Rs. 376 (8 m pay at Rs. 47/- p.m) under Art. 474(a) of the If the qualifying service had been 9 years 5 days more, the applicant would have b eligible for an invalid gratuity of Rs. 423 equivalent to 9 month's pay. The S. E. Be circle has condoned this deficiency of 5 d under Art. 423(1) of the C.S.R.

Item (ii) above includes a temporary serv of 1 year and 20 days in the Tungabhadra Project Dn. The S.E. has stated that if th period of service is also allowed to count f pension under Art. 361-A C.S.R. the applicant total qualifying service will amount to 10 complete years for which he will be eligible for an invalid pension instead of a gratuity. The Chief Engineer recommends that taking into consideration the fact that the typist was invalided prematurely at the age of 36 and also the fact that his character and conduct were good his initial temporary service of 1 year and 20 days may be declared as qualifying for pension under Art. 361-A, C.S.R. The A. G. has certified that if the Govt. are pleased to declare the initial temporary service of 1 year and 20 days as qualifying for pension under Art. 361 A C.S.R as recommended by the C.E. the applicant's qualifying service will amount to over 10 years without the condonation of the deficiency of 5 days referred to at A on the previous page, and an invalid pension not exceeding Rs. 7-6-0 p.m. will be admissible in lieu of the gratuity of Rs. 423/-

2. It is submitted that the temporary service in this case is very short being only almost 1 year and 20 days and that every Govt. servant has some years of officiating or temporary service. The concession in Art. 361-A C.S.R is intended to provide some means of support in the old age for temporary employees whose long and faithful service in an appointment not qualifying for pension was such as to merit special consideration. The mere fact that there is some non-qualifying temporary service immediately preceding qualifying service is not a reason for counting the non-qualifying service also for pension. There appears to be nothing special about this case and the fact that the grant of the concession will enable the applicant to get a pension instead of a gratuity does not, it seems, constitute a ground for exceptional treatment. Attention is in this connection invited to Secretary's note and orders in circulation on pp. 23-24 of G.O. No. 1113 Fin (Pens) dated 2-11-38.

Submitted that the condonation of a deficiency of 5 days to make up the qualifying service to 9 years granted by the S.E. which brings the applicant an additional gratuity of Rs. 47/- is a sufficient concession. It may be agreed to in this Deptt.
